

Meet Alex Van Der Luit

Alex Van Der Luit has been teaching dance for 11 years. She began teaching in college after being a member of the Florida Gulf Coast Dance Team. Her first teaching position was at the former studio Bourne 2 Dance (her home). She has taught ballet, contemporary, lyrical, jazz, and acro. Currently, she lives in Riverview, Florida, where she works as a 4th-grade teacher while also teaching acro classes at a local studio. Alex continues to serve as a guest choreographer for the Project B2D competition team, where she has created award-winning national numbers. She finds joy in building confidence and helping her students grow, with a primary focus on assisting them in achieving their goals.
